*Art
Bennett*

Art Bennett is the Director of the Employee Assistance Programs for Triune Health Group which provides counseling, training and consultation for organizations. He is also the Director of the Alpha Omega Clinic and Consultation Services which is a not-for profit organization that integrates psychology and business practices with the Catholic faith. He was a vice president and division manager for Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC) where he managed international mental health programs in Europe, South America, and Asia for the military and commercial industries.

He and his wife, Laraine, have written a book on a Catholic perspective of the 4 Temperaments called THE TEMPERAMENT GOD GAVE YOU and the soon to be released THE TEMPERAMENT GOD GAVE YOUR SPOUSE. He is the author of Men and Work, a training program which helps leaders approach work from an integrated perspective based on the writings of John Paul II. He is also the author of the website www.unityrestored.com which combats pornography addiction.

He has written columns on the integration of faith and business for the National Catholic Register and hosted a radio show called "Healthy Minds/ Healthy Souls" interviewing guests on the issues of the Catholic Faith and mental health.

He has given talks in North America, Europe, and Asia on marriage, family life, professional and personal balance, and the integration of the faith in all areas of life. He and his wife, Laraine, have been married for 31 years and they are the parents of two sons and two daughters from age 23 to 14: one of each temperament.
